6. Please click “Upload File to MediaFire” to upload/send.
7. You will see a page showing as below.

On the above screen, you will see the “Upload Progress” counting from 0% to 100%. Then, will see the “Verifying Progress” counting from 0% to 100%.

8. After everything is done, you will see the screen as below.

The screenshot shows the MediaFire website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the MediaFire logo and links for 'Upload Files', 'My Files', 'My Account', and 'What's New'. On the right side of the navigation bar, there are links for 'Create a Free Account' and 'Login', along with a 'Tell us what you think' link.

The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, a message states: 'So far, you've uploaded these files under an anonymous account. If you create an account, we will transfer your anonymously uploaded files to your new account.' Below this, a green box indicates '1 file(s) uploaded successfully' and provides instructions on how to share the files via email, instant messenger, or website profiles.

On the right, there is a 'Create a Free Account' form. The form includes fields for 'Email', 'Password: (minimum 5 characters)', and 'Confirm Password:'. A 'Create a Free Account' button is located below the form, and a link for 'Already have an account? Login here' is provided at the bottom.

Below the account creation form, there is a preview of a file upload page. The file size is shown as '(8.91 KB)'. The page includes tabs for 'Info', 'Email', 'Share by IM', and 'Embed in Website'. A 'Download File' button is visible. The 'Sharing URL' is displayed as 'http://www.mediafire.com/?eo11bmdxcnm'. Social media sharing options for digg, del.icio.us, and facebook are also present.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with navigation links: 'Contact', 'About', 'FAQs', 'Blog', 'Tell a Friend', 'Link to MediaFire', 'Bookmark', 'Support', and 'Save to del.icio.us'. Copyright information for 2007 MediaFire is also included.

9. Please make a note and let us know the “Sharing URL” so we can download the file.
If you uploaded/sent more than 1 file, it will give you a separate “Sharing URL” for each file.
